8. Exhibitors are required to give personal attention to their property during the fair.
9. Exhibitors are responsible for the removal of their exhibits at the close of the fair.

Exhibit Disqualifications

1. Any item improperly entered will be disqualified and will not be judged. The judge shall mark the correct name on the tag for the benefit of the exhibitor.
2. If Department Superintendent believes an entry or exhibit was shown in previous years, the item may be refused.
3. Superintendents reserve the right to refuse any entry and may bar from competition animals, vegetables, flowers, and manufactured articles of inferior quality and those not possessing sufficient merit to warrant recognition.
4. The Fair Association may, at any time, order the removal of an exhibit or part of exhibit in bad condition and/or unfit to show.
5. Food products may not be chemically altered in such a way that food becomes poisonous or unfit for human consumption.
6. The Fair Association reserves the right to determine how many entries they will accept from one exhibitor and/or family if facilities are not available to handle total entries, rather than closing any department when space has been filled.
7. No exhibitor will be allowed to duplicate entries of a single variety of any kind of grain, vegetable, annual or perennial specimen flowers or plants or any other classes listed, excluding some classes of livestock.
8. No imported, manufactured or commercial products may be exhibited.
9. Exhibitors removing entries before 10:30 PM Saturday (except as permitted) will forfeit all premiums.
10. Failure to comply with Fair Association rules will result in premium forfeiture.

Judging

1. The decision of the judges shall be final except when mistakes, fraud, misrepresentation or collusion, not discovered at the time of award, is proven. In such cases, the Dept Superintendent, and/or Officers/Fair Board, or such referee as may appointed, shall determine validity of claim.
2. All judging protests must be in writing and plainly state the cause of the complaint or appeal.
3. Such protests must be filed at the Fair office within 48 hours of the occurrence.
4. There will be no judging on the Danish System (group method of judging).
5. When there is no competition, judges may give an award as they deem the exhibit is worthy.
6. In cases where there are fewer entries in any class than the number of premiums offered, judges may give an award such as they deem the exhibit is worthy.

Premium Payments

1. Checks will be presented when you pick up your exhibits..
2. Checks must be cashed within 30 days of check date. No checks will be reissued.
3. Premiums may be given for meritorious exhibits.
4. In the event that receipts of the Fair are insufficient to meet all expenses and to pay premiums in full, the Fair Association reserves the right to prorate the funds available for premiums among the respective winners.
5. Payments made on a pro-rata share, though less than the amount published, shall constitute a full and complete discharge to any premium obligation.

Loss or Damage To Exhibits

1. All articles on exhibition must be respected as private property.
2. Reasonable care will be taken to protect all exhibits on display from injury and damage.
3. Person(s) caught stealing exhibits or abusing/injuring livestock will be dealt with according to the law.
4. At the exhibitor's request, stolen or destroyed ribbons may be duplicated free of charge at the close of the fair, if supplies are available.
5. The Fair Association is not, in any way, to be held responsible for accidents, loss or damage by water, fire, theft, or otherwise, whatever the cause or extent of the damage or loss.

Law and Order

1. No disorderly conduct of any kind will be permitted on the fairgrounds.
2. Concessioners are liable and will be held to strict account for any violations of the law and have no claims on the Fair Association for refund of fees paid.

Celebrating 100 Years at the West End Fair Laurelton, Pennsylvania

In 2025, the Union County West End Fair Association will be celebrating our 100th year anniversary and we need your help!

We are looking for:

- Volunteers who would like to help plan our 100th anniversary celebration.
- Fair memorabilia, photos and momentos to be displayed in a secure location at the 100th annual Union County West End Fair. All items will be returned after the celebration.
- Stories and memories of your experiences at the fair.

Photos will be scanned and stories will be published in a 100th anniversary booklet covering the fair’s history.

For more information or to volunteer, contact
Judy Moyer at 570-922-1798.
